Dara Epistil Phoil absdail chum na Dtessalonicanach
The Second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians

An Irish and English Parallel Bible

The Irish translation was accomplished by William O'Domhnuill in 1602, and has been copied from an 1817 edition of that translation. William O'Domhnuill (d.1628), known also as William O'Daniel, Archbishop of Tuam was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland. It was while at Trinity College that William took up the work of translating The New Testament - Tiomna Nuadh into Irish. This work was begun by Nicolas Walsh, Bishop of Ossory, who was murdered in 1585, and afterwards it was continued by John Kearney (who translated and published the first Irish [protestant] Catechism, printed in Dublin in 1571), and Nehemias Donellan, Archbishop of Tuam in 1595. This translation was dedicated to the newly ascended King James I, and published by O'Daniel in 1603.

The English translation used in this booklet is the King James Version (KJV) of the Holy Bible, commissioned by King James I of England in 1604. The translation work was completed by forty-seven learned Biblical scholars in 1611 and published that same year. It has had the most profound impact not only on English literature as a whole, world-wide, but also on Elglish-speaking peoples, world-wide! This same version is often referred to as the Authorised Version (AV). Despite its age, it is still very readable by the average reader today, and it remains one of the most widely-read literary works of all time.

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:
6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;
10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

Chapter 2

1 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;
4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.
5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 Ionnus go ndaimeontaói an méid uilé nar chreid a nfírinne, achd agá raibh a ndúil a néugcóir.
13 Gidheadh atá dfiachuibh oruinne buidheachas do bhreith do shíor ré Día ar bhur sonsa, atá grádhuighthe ón Dtíghearna, ar a nadhbhar gur thogh Día sibh ó thosuigh chum slánaighthe tré náomthachd na Spioruidhe agus tré chreideamh na fírinne:
14 Chum ar ghoir sé síbh tré ar soisgélne, chum gnodhuighe ghlóire ar Dtíghearna Iósa Críosd.
15 Uime sin, a dhearbhráithre, seasuidh go daingean, agus congmhuídh na toirbhearta fúarabhair, noch do múineadh dhíbh, tré bhreithir, nó tré ar neipisdilne.
16 Agus gó dtuguidh an Tíghearna féin Iósa Críosd, agus Día, eadhon ar Nathair, noch do ghrádhuigh sinn, agus tug dhúinn comhfhurtachd síorruidhe agus muinighin mhaith tré ghrás,
17 Furtachd do bhur gcroidhthibh, agus go ndaingnidhe sé sibh sa nuile bhréithir agus dheaghobair.

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

1 Tuilleadh eile, a dhearbhráithre, guidhidh air arsuinne, ionnus go mbíadh cumus réatha ag bréithir an Tíghearna, agus go ndéuntaói glórmhar é, do reir mar atá aguibhse:
2 Agus chum sinne sháoradh ó dhrochdháoinibh gan fharas: oír ní ag gach éinneach atá creideamh.
3 Gidheadh atá an Tíghearna díleas, noch dhaingnéochas, agus chóimhéudfus sibh ó olc.
4 Agus atá muinighin aguinn sa Dtíghearna bhur dtáobhsa, go udéunann agus go ndéunfá sibh na neithe áithnighmid díbh.
5 Agus go dtréoruidhe an Tíghearna bhur gcroidhthe sá tslíghe dhírigh chum grádha Dé, agus chum feitheamh go foighideach ré Críosd.

7 Oír atá a fhios aguibh féin cionnas as cóir sinne leanmhuin: óir níor iomchramar sinn féin go míríaghalta eadruibhse;
8 Agus ní a naisgidh do itheamar arán ó aóin neach; achd maille ré sáothar agus ré

1 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;
8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail

10 Oír fós an tan bhámar eadruibh, do áithneamar só dhíbh, eadhon má atá aóinneach ris nách áill obair do dhéunamh, ná hítheadh bíadh mar an gcéudna.
11 Oír do chluinmíd go bhfuilid daóine áirighe ag siúbhal eadruibh go míriaghalta, nach déun obair ar bíth, achd sháitheas íad féin a neithibh nach beanann ríu.
12 Do bheirmíd fógrá dhá samhuil sin agus íarrmuid orrtha tré ar Dtíghearna Iósa Chríosd, a narán féin díthe dhóibh, ag sáothrughadh maille ré súaimhneas.
13 Agus ná bighidhse, a dhearbhráithre, tuirseach do dhéunamh maitheasa.
14 Agus má atá duine ar bith nach dtabhair úmhlachd dár mbréithirne sa neipisdilse, cuiridh cómhartha air, agus seachnuidh a chomhlúadar, ionnus go mbíadh adhnáire air.
15 Thairis sin ná bíodh mead námhad aguibh air achd teaguisgidh é mar dhearbhráthair.
16 Agus do dtuguidh Tíghearna na síothchána féin síothcháin dhíbh do shíor ar gach éunchor. An Tíghearna maille ribh uile.
17 Beatha agus sláinte chuguibh re mo láimhse Pol, noch as cómhartha ann gach éin eipisdil: is mar so sgríobhuim.
18 Grása ar Dtíghearna Iósa Críosd maille ribh uile. Amén.

night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
